READING AND DISPOSING OF COMMUNICATIONS

The Registrar provided a response to communication from a faculty member regarding a request to modify the existing exam policy to allow the scheduling of mid-term exams for a 6-credit course during the December exam period. The Registrar advised that the common practices of other universities were examined and due to the additional work required to schedule, book rooms and invigilators, most institutions do not schedule mid-term exams. It was advised that a process that will still fall under exam regulations and policies and that won't penalize students will be set up for faculty that request mid-term exams outside of class time. The Registrar asked that faculty work through the Associate Registrar, Scheduling and Registration, Liane Pardy.

QUESTION PERIOD

Senator Tabachnick requested clarification of Senate By-Law 6.0(f) regarding the timetabling of classes to ensure faculty Senators are not scheduled to teach during regular Senate meetings. The Registrar advised that moving forward the Registrar's office will try to ensure that parameters are set so that faculty Senators do not have classes scheduled during regular Senate meetings.

Senator Horton addressed concerns regarding repeated requests from 2016-17 for information from the Teaching and Learning Committee on the use of an on-line student opinion survey (SOS). It was advised that the Teaching & Learning Committee currently does not have a Chair. The Speaker advised that the membership of the Teaching and Learning Committee has been amended in the attached revised By-Laws document to include the Academic Deans, or designate, one of whom shall be Chair.

A request was made for an update on the Canadore OPSEU Academic strike. It was advised that the Canadore OPSEU members agreed to stand down from the picket lines this week while Nipissing students were writing exams. No other media advisories have been provided, but it is expected that the strike will continue into next week.

In follow-up to a sighting of high school students participating in a tour of the Canadore facilities, a question was raised whether Nipissing provides tours to high school students. The Assistant VP Students advised that an Open House is held for students and parents, and we have recruiters that go out to the schools. Students, parents and guidance counsellors are invited and tours are arranged. Tours are also offered when the Robotics and Science Fairs are held on campus.

Senator Tabachnick followed up on questions raised at the September Senate meeting regarding the Campus Book Shop. He was seeking further clarity on the challenges students have faced receiving required textbooks. The Assistant VP Students thanked faculty for their concerns and advised that additional resources would be hired in the Campus Shop to replace a vacant position that had not been filled. He also advised that work is ongoing with the UTS Dept. to provide electronic data that will feed directly into the Campus Shop program. Most textbook orders from faculty have been received for the winter semester, but there are still a few outstanding. He will continue to provide updates as the issues are worked through. Senator Manankil-Rankin advised that at a recent NICHE Conference hosted at Nipissing University a discussion was held on eCampus Ontario using open source textbooks that are available on-line. It is run by the Ministry and the cost of the textbooks is covered by tax payers. Senator Somerville also commented that the Canadian Association of Students is also pushing for more faculty to use eCampus resources.

Senator Tabachnick inquired as to how Nipissing University is addressing the issue of student conduct in surrounding neighbourhoods. The Assistant VP Students advised that the stance that the Nipissing and Canadore Student Unions, Police, City of North Bay Housing By-Laws and Home Owners groups are taking is to help educate students and promote students to be good neighbours. Senator Lamorea also responded by adding that NUSU has been working with the Police and they have attended City Council meetings. She advised that city by-laws are being challenged by the government. NUSU is also in talks with other universities to see how they are handling these issues.

REPORTS OF STANDING COMMITTEES AND FACULTY OR UNIVERSITY COUNCILS

SENATE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

MOTION 3: Moved by A. Weeks, seconded by G. McCann that Senate receive the Report of the Senate Executive Committee dated October 11, 2017.
Senator Gendron expressed concerns that the Senate Executive approved the graduates on behalf of Senate and asked why this request could not have waited for approval at the October 20, 2017 Senate meeting. The Senate Secretary advised that the graduates had been advised that their degrees would be conferred at the October 13 Senate meeting. The October 13 Senate meeting was postponed to October 20 and requests had been received from BEd and Nursing students anxious to have their degrees conferred in order to be accredited.

He provided an update on the University Fair and congratulated the organizers of the Challenging Canada 150 Symposium. A successful NICHE Conference was recently held, as well as the Annual Staff Service Awards and Fall Open House. This will be the last weekend for home games for soccer and the last lacrosse games of the season. Hockey starts this evening and on October 28 the Silk Road Melody Performance will be held.

The Provost and Vice-President Academic and Research wished to thank everyone for the warm welcome she has received. She advised that she has had a very busy first 10 days. She has been in preparation for a grant application to support Experiential Learning; attended a tenure & promotion briefing session; reviewed SSHRC and NSERC applications; visited the Registrar's office retreat; attended a Citizenship Ceremony; joined other time travelers at NU2042 Part III, and has met with the Senate Executive, USC, UMG, NUFA, Research Council, Budget Advisory Committee and attended the Arts and Science Faculty Council meeting. She provided an update on the five stages of the Institutional Quality Assurance Process (IQAP) and advised of the reviews currently under way in Education, including Bachelor of Physical and Health Education, and the reviews that are currently in arrears or delayed. These include, but may not be limited to: Sociology; Fine Arts; School of Business; Geography; Criminal Justice; Nursing (accreditation); MSc in Mathematics and Masters in Environmental Studies/Science. She advised that at the next Senate meeting via the Planning and Priorities Committee she hopes to present a work plan that will address the reviews that are in arrears, address the reviews that could potentially be on track, but need to be initiated, and propose changes to the current protocol to ensure that in future these reviews are completed in a fashion that is both timely and supportive of academic planning. She also wishes to propose the establishment of a QA Committee as a sub-committee of the Planning and Priorities Committee as an initial step to fully review structures and processes that support Quality Assurance at Nipissing University.

The Vice-President, Finance & Administration advised that the Audited Financial Statements for the 2016/17 fiscal year have been approved by the Board of Governors and are posted on the website. The 2016/17 financial results were very positive, ending with a fully consolidated deficit of approximately $300,000. The deficit was significantly less than anticipated as a result of additional grant funding for both Education and Nursing as well as continued underspending in several expense categories. The VPFA indicated that collective efforts across the University have resulted in significant reductions in the deficit over the past 4 – 5 years.

The Dean of Arts and Science congratulated the organizers of the Challenging Canada 150 Symposium for an amazing accomplishment.

MOTION 1: That the Report of the Undergraduate Standing and Petitions Subcommittee dated September 28, 2017 be received.

FACULTY OF APPLIED AND PROFESSIONAL STUDIESSocial Welfare and Social Development

The following two motions were approved at a departmental meeting on 21 September 2017:

MOTION 1: That the Undergraduate Studies Committee recommend to Senate to approve the banking of SWLF 4005: Research Essay

Rationale: When we created our Honours Specialization program a few years ago, we added six credits of courses to the curriculum: SWLF 4006 (Social Development) and SWLF 4007 (Honours Seminar). SWLF 4005, which had been a requirement for the Honours degree before the creation of the Honours Specialization, was turned into an elective course. In the years since, few students have enrolled in this elective, likely because in the SWLF 4007 course they already write a major paper on a topic of their own choosing. As a consequence, we recommend banking SWLF 4005.

MOTION 2: That the Undergraduate Studies Committee recommend to Senate to approve the addition of the following to the regulations for the SWLF.SSW Collaborative Degree-Diploma Program:

A maximum of 6 credits of cross-listed courses may count toward an Honours Specialization in Social Welfare and Social Development with a Social Service Worker diploma.

Rationale: The above paragraph currently applies to the Honours Specialization, the Specialization, and the Major in SWLF. It was overlooked when we put the SWLF.SSW program through Senate last year.

English

MOTION #3: That the course description for ENGL 3487, Topics in Poetic Genres, be modified as follows:

OLD DESCRIPTION: This course examines the conventions of, and developments within, a specific literary genre through a literary period or across literary history. Genres are drawn from British, Canadian, American and other literatures. Specific genres and associated course content vary from year to year.

NEW DESCRIPTION: Students examine the conventions of, and developments within, a specific poetic genre through a literary period or across literary history. Genres are drawn from British, Canadian, American and other literatures. Specific genres and associated course content vary from year to year.

Rationale: Because the generic catalogue title is often replaced by a topic title on WebAdvisor, the current description does not make clear that this course focuses on poetry.

MOTION #4: That the course description for ENGL 3496, Topics in Dramatic Genres, be modified as follows:

OLD DESCRIPTION: This course examines the conventions of, and developments within, a specific literary genre through a literary period or across literary history. Genres are drawn from British, Canadian, American and other literatures. Specific genres and associated course content vary from year to year.

NEW DESCRIPTION: Students examine the conventions of, and developments within, a specific dramatic genre through a literary period or across literary history. Genres are drawn from British, Canadian, American and other literatures. Specific genres and associated course content vary from year to year.

Rationale: See rationale to Motion #3.

MOTION #5: That the course description for ENGL 3497, Topics in Prose Genres, be modified as follows:

OLD DESCRIPTION: This course examines the conventions of, and developments within, a specific literary genre through a literary period or across literary history. Genres are drawn from British, Canadian, American and other literatures. Specific genres and associated course content vary from year to year.

NEW DESCRIPTION: Students examine the conventions of, and developments within, a specific prose genre through a literary period or across literary history. Genres are drawn from British, Canadian, American and other literatures. Specific genres and associated course content vary from year to year.

Rationale: See rationale to Motion #3.

MOTION #6: That the course description for ENGL 2616, Topics in Visual Storytelling, be modified as follows:

OLD DESCRIPTION: Students examine the unique ways in which visual texts create and tell stories. Visual literacy and the relationship between image and text inform the approach of this course, which introduces students to the study of visual texts, and the relationship between text and image. Students can expect at least 50% of the course material to be drawn from forms such as the graphic novel and illustrated books. Specific content varies from year to year.

NEW DESCRIPTION: Students examine the unique ways in which visual texts create and tell stories. Visual literacy and the relationship between images, static or moving, and narrative inform the approach of this course. Specific content varies from year to year.

Rationale: The current description unnecessarily limits possible topics. Also, there are some weird sentence problems!

ARCC Meeting Date: September 22, 2017

Re: Proposal to remove the anti requisite 1025 Introduction to World Religions from the courses
RLCT 2146 From Gurus to Shamans and Beyond and RLCT 2147 From G-d to Allah and Beyond

Preamble & Rationale:

Due to an oversight, this anti-requisite was applied when the course 1025 World Religions was split into two. The new courses have been restructured and offered at the second year level. Both contain different material from RLCT 1025 and more theory. This has been discussed in the Department of Religions and Cultures and all faculty agree that this anti-requisite should be removed so that the students who took RLCT 1025 can take the course.

The Department of Religions and Cultures is presenting a number of course title changes, many of which are a return to their original titles. These are non-substantive changes and the course content and description remain exactly the same for all. The rationale for making these changes is that students have been confused by a number of these titles and it appears that they do not adequately convey the content of the course. Many of the terms used are well known in the field of religious studies but would not be familiar to those coming from outside the discipline. RLCT faculty has agreed that we want the titles to be as descriptive as possible when students are scanning through web advisor. All members of the Religions and Cultures Department are in agreement with these proposed changes.

The proposed changes are as follows:

RLCT 2046 Global Spiritualities: Eastern Traditions in the Contemporary World

Change to:

RLCT 2046 Global Spirituality: Religious Traditions in the Contemporary World

RLCT 2146 From Gurus to Shamans and Beyond

Change to:

RLCT 2146 World Religions: Eastern Traditions

RLCT 2147 From G-d to Allah and Beyond

Change to:

RLCT 2147 World Religions: Western Traditions

RLCT 3116 The Curse of the Fallen Woman: Women and Western Traditions

Change to:

RLCT 3116 Women and Western Religions

RLCT 3216 Is God Dead? Faith in the Modern World

Change to:

RLCT 3216 Atheism, Skepticism and Religious Faith

RLCT 3206 The Religious Animal

Change to:

RLCT 3206 Theories of Religion

RLCT 3507 Greening Religion: Nature, Spirituality and Activism

Change to:

RLCT 3507 Religion and the Environment

A request was made for clarification of the role that PPC plays in the SMA process. The Provost reported that although the SMA process was completed before her arrival the exercise is driven by the Council of Ontario Universities. The Vice-Chair reminded that the faculties and PPC contributed input to the process. The Provost advised that the SMA's are currently in lockdown until released by COU.

The Provost advised that the Quality Assurance Framework requires each university to submit to the Quality Council an annual report on the major modifications undertaken over the past year (July 1, 2016 to June 30, 2017). The annual report will be completed and sent out to the Deans for review before it is forwarded on to the Council on Quality Assurance.

The Provost presented a PowerPoint presentation on Quality Assessment and requested that members of PPC become familiar with the Quality Assurance resources which can be found on the Provost's website. A discussion was held regarding the ongoing program reviews (Sociology, School of Business, BEd, Aboriginal Teacher Certification, Teacher of Anishnaabemwin as a Second Language Programme, MEd, PhD & BPHE); the program review in arrears (Nursing); the program reviews that have been delayed (Fine Arts, Geography, Criminal Justice, MSc Math & MES/MESc Environmental) and the imminent program review (English Studies). The processes and timelines that should be followed were also discussed. PPC members were in agreement that a smaller, nimbler committee of 4-5 people be formed and suggestions were made on how best to proceed. The Provost advised that there will be resources made available to support the Quality Assurance process. It was suggested that additional administrative support and staff with expertise on data sets and surveys may also be required.

MOTION 1: Moved by M. Tuncali, seconded by A. Armenakyan that the Provost initiate the IQAP processes at Nipissing University according to the timeline presented.
CARRIED

MOTION 2: Moved by A. Vainio-Mattila, seconded by B. Hatt to constitute an Ad Hoc working group to review the current Quality Assurance processes.

Nipissing University

Report of the By-Laws and Elections Subcommittee

November 2, 2017

There was a meeting of the By-Laws and Elections Subcommittee on Tuesday, October 31, 2017 at 10:30 a.m. in F307.

Present: B. Hatt, N. Colborne, J. McIntosh, D. Tabachnick

Guests: J. McAuliffe & D. Iafrate

Regrets: C. Allen, D. Davis

The Agenda of the October 31, 2017 By-Laws and Elections Subcommittee meeting was approved.

Moved by D. Tabachnick, seconded by N. Colborne that the Report of the October 3, 2017 By-Laws and Elections Subcommittee meeting be accepted.

CARRIED

J. McAuliffe and D. Iafrate presented a new proposal for their recommended amendment to the Student Appeals Committee. As the Student Appeals Committee is intended to review questions of procedure and not substance, any member of the Appeals Committee should be qualified to serve on graduate appeals. Therefore, their recommendation is to keep the original membership of the committee with no addition of Graduate Faculty. They recommend that Article 9.4.1(a) regarding Individual Appeal Panels be amended to require that a graduate student member of the Student Appeals Committee must be included if the appeal is a graduate appeal.

Moved by J. McIntosh, seconded by D. Tabachnick that the Bylaws and Elections Subcommittee accept the proposed revision to Article 9.4.1(a).

CARRIED

The Graduate Studies Leave and Time Extensions Subcommittee proposal was approved at the October 3, 2017 By-Laws and Elections Subcommittee meeting but was not forwarded to the October 20, 2017 Senate meeting as a notice of motion. The notice of motion will be included in the November 10, 2017 Senate agenda.

J. McAuliffe noted that the recent revision of the Senate By-Laws makes all Deans members of all Senate Committees. It is not necessary that the Dean of Graduate Studies and Research serve on all committees. He will report to the By-Laws and Elections Subcommittee and suggest the names of committees that do not require the membership of this Dean.

D. Iafrate responded to a request regarding the feasibility of a 1:00 p.m. start time for Senate meetings starting next year. She will attempt to ensure classes end by 12:30 p.m. on Fridays next year when possible.

D. Iafrate requested that Article 9.3.1(a)(i) be amended to read: the Registrar, (non-voting) or designate, who shall be Chair.

Moved by D. Tabachnick, seconded by N. Colborne that Article 9.3.1(a)(i) be amended to read: The Registrar, (non-voting) or designate, who shall be Chair;

CARRIED

This was approved as a non-substantive change and does not require a Notice of Motion to Senate. The change will be provided to Senate as information.

The capacity of Senate Executive to act on behalf of Senate under certain conditions was discussed. In practice, Senate Executive has acted on behalf of Senate when quorum has been lost or when Senate isn't scheduled to meet and time sensitive action is required. The present by-laws only allow Senate Executive to act on behalf of Senate during the summer months. J. McIntosh and D. Tabachnick will bring forward a proposed amendment to the terms of reference of the Senate Executive to the next By-Laws and Elections Subcommittee meeting.

The Senate Budget Advisory Committee membership and terms of reference were discussed. These appeared as a Notice of Motion at the previous Senate. D. Tabachnick will propose the following amendment to these bylaws at the next Senate:

Ex-Officio Members:

Provost, VPAR (non-voting), who shall be chair
VP Finance and Administration (non-voting)

Members Elected by Senate or Faculty Council:

Three Faculty Senators or non-Senators*

NUSU Representative

* tenure or tenure track Faculty Senators preferred

Moved by D. Tabachnick, seconded by J. McIntosh, that the Senate By-Laws be amended to include the following:

11.3 Standing Joint Committee of the Board and Senate on Governance

- (a) Ex Officio Members:
 - (i) the President of the Nipissing University Student Union (NUSU) or designate
- (b) Members Elected by Senate:
 - (i) three (3) Senators or non-Senators elected by Senate
- (c) Members Elected by the Board:
 - (i) three (3) members of the Board of Governors elected by the Board
- (d) Terms of Reference:
 - (i) to periodically review on an at least an annual basis the governance structures and practices of the University to foster bicameral communication and collegiality and to recommend amendments to by-laws, practices or policies as may be advisable;
 - (ii) to establish and oversee a procedure for providing a joint orientation to new members of the Senate and Board as a means of promoting the effective governance of the university;
 - (iii) to establish and oversee a statement on the importance of collegial governance at Nipissing;
 - (iv) to oversee the implementation of the recommendations of the Special Governance Commission Report of October 27, 2016

CARRIED

The next meeting of the By-Laws and Elections Subcommittee will be held on November 28, 2017 at 10:30 a.m. in F307.

MOTION 1: That Senate Executive receive the Report of the By-Laws and Elections Subcommittee dated November 2, 2017.

Respectfully submitted,
Original signed by:

The Senate of Nipissing University, established in 1992 by the Legislature of the Province of Ontario in Bill Pr70 (An Act respecting Nipissing University), has the duties to “establish the educational policies of the University” and to “make recommendations to the board with respect to any matter of academic concern to the University”.

Should this not occur, the respondent may elect to answer the question at the next regular Senate meeting.

6.4 Senate Quorum

 - (ii) by Senate vote on a motion to that effect, which shall not be debatable.

6.7 In Camera Consideration

- (a) During a meeting, Senate may vote to consider specific items of business in camera, thereby closing the meeting to non-members while these matters are under discussion. Such a motion shall clearly identify all items of business to be considered in camera, and is debatable. Should the motion be carried, all non-members in attendance shall be required to leave the meeting immediately.
- (b) Upon completion of all in camera business items and after a motion to close in camera, the Speaker shall declare the meeting once again open to non-members.
- (c) Motions to consider specific matters in camera shall normally come from the Senate Executive Committee and appear in the Senate agenda, but they may also be raised during the course of a meeting by any Senator, as a question of privilege.

- (d) The approval by Senate of honorary degree candidates shall always be considered in camera. Other matters where individual students or University personnel are identified by name or where confidential financial or other information is involved may also warrant in camera consideration.

7. GENERAL SENATE PROCEDURES

7.0 The Role of Motions in Conducting Senate Business

- (a) Formal Senate decision-making shall normally proceed only through proposing and approving (or otherwise disposing of) appropriately worded motions.
- (b) Further to (a), during the consideration of any report, proposal or recommendation, there shall be a motion, and only one motion, before Senate at any given time.
- (c) All motions brought before Senate shall be moved and seconded before the subject matter of the motion is open for debate.
- (d) A motion may be withdrawn with the consent of both the mover and seconder, but if either objects, the motion shall be considered and put to a vote.

7.1 Main Motions and Their Disposition

- (a) The initial motion proposed in connection with any item of business shall henceforth be referred to as the "main motion". Once the main motion is before Senate, other motions (some of which apply directly to the main motion and some of which are purely procedural) may be introduced and shall be given higher precedence.
- (b) Specifically, once a main motion is under consideration, any of the following motions may be applied to it (listed from lowest to highest, in order of their precedence):
 - (i) a motion to divide the main motion;
 - (ii) a motion to amend the main motion;
 - (iii) a motion to refer the main motion, with instructions;
 - (iv) a motion to postpone consideration of the main motion to a certain day/time; and
 - (v) a motion to close (or limit) debate on the main motion.
- (c) Notwithstanding (a) and (b), the end result in every case shall be that the original main motion or each of its individual parts if divided is carried (with or without amendments), defeated or otherwise disposed of.

7.2 Amendments

- (a) A proposed amendment to any motion before Senate shall be worded so as to:
 - (i) delete specified words from the motion;
 - (ii) add specified words to the motion; or
 - (iii) delete specified words from the motion and substitute others in their place.

- (b) If the mover and seconder of the original motion agree to do so, they may accept a proposed amendment as a “friendly amendment”, in which case the changes shall be incorporated into the original motion without the need for a vote.
- (c) While an amendment is under consideration, an amendment to the amendment may be proposed.
- (d) Any amendment which, if approved, would nullify the intent of the original motion is out of order, and shall be so declared by the Speaker.
- (e) Amendments shall be considered and voted on in the following order, where applicable:
 - (i) the amendment to the amendment;
 - (ii) the amendment, as amended in (i) or as originally proposed; and
 - (iii) the original motion, as amended in (ii) or as originally proposed.

7.3 Debatability and Plurality Requirements of Senate Motions

- (a) The following motions shall be debatable:
 - (i) any main motion;
 - (ii) any motion to divide;
 - (iii) any motion to amend;
 - (iii) any motion to refer, with instructions (debatable both as to the instructions and as to the advisability of referral);
 - (iv) any motion to postpone consideration (debatable both as to the proposed day/time and as to the advisability of postponement);
 - (v) any motion to reconsider a previously-carried or previously-defeated motion (debatable as to the merits of reconsideration, but only if the original motion was debatable and only if no subsequent irreversible action resulting from the original motion has already occurred);
 - (vi) any motion to consider specific items of business in camera (debatable both as to the list of items and as to the appropriateness of closing the meeting to non-members; see 6.7); and
 - (vii) any motion to conduct a vote by roll-call (debatable as to the need for such a vote; see 7.5(e)).
- (b) The following motions are not debatable and shall be put to an immediate vote:
 - (i) any motion to close (or limit) debate on a motion;
 - (ii) any motion objecting to consideration of a motion;
 - (iii) any motion to suspend one or more of these By-Laws;
 - (iv) any motion to adjourn;
 - (v) any motion to conduct a vote by secret ballot (see 7.5(d));
 - (vi) any motion to allow a non-member to speak (see 6.6(b)(ii)); and
 - (vii) any motion appealing a procedural ruling by the Speaker.
- (c) The following motions shall require a two-thirds (2/3) plurality:
 - (i) any motion to close (or limit) debate on a motion;
 - (ii) any motion objecting to consideration of a motion;
 - (iii) any motion to suspend one or more of these By-Laws; and
 - (iv) any motion to adopt or amend these By-Laws.

7.4 Debate and Decorum

- (a) During the discussion of any substantive motion, the mover shall normally be offered the opportunity to speak first and also to make final comments at the close of debate. Other Senators shall normally speak only once, and in any case shall not be permitted to speak a second time until all those wishing to speak for the first time have been recognized and heard.
- (b) Providing clarification or explanation in direct response to a specific question or point of information shall not be counted as speaking to the motion.

- (c) In speaking to any motion, each Senator shall normally be limited to at most ten (10) minutes. The Speaker shall rule on any request to extend this time limit, and any such ruling shall be subject to appeal.
- (d) Senators shall be expected to observe appropriate decorum during any debate.

7.5 Voting on Senate Motions

- (a) Except as otherwise specified in 7.3(c), Senate motions shall be carried by a simple plurality of votes in favour over votes against, with abstentions not being called or recorded.
- (b) Voting on Senate motions shall normally be conducted by a simple show of hands, with the Speaker declaring the motion to be carried or defeated. Should any member request that such a vote be recorded, Senators may be asked to stand or keep their hands in the air until the count is taken.
- (c) Notwithstanding (c), any Senator may, on a question of privilege, move that the vote on the motion before Senate be conducted by secret ballot. A motion to hold a secret ballot, once seconded, is not debatable and shall be put to an immediate vote.
- (d) Notwithstanding (c), any Senator may likewise, on a question of privilege, move that the vote on the motion before Senate be conducted by roll-call. A motion to conduct a vote by roll-call is debatable as to the need for such a vote.
- (e) Whether a vote is conducted by show of hands, secret ballot or roll-call, the Speaker or Deputy Speaker (whoever is conducting the vote) shall retain the right, as an elected Senator, to vote on the motion. Should the vote on any motion end in a tie, the motion shall be declared defeated.
- (f) Voting by proxy shall not be permitted.

7.6 Elections Conducted in Senate

- (a) When elections are to be conducted during Senate meetings, these shall normally take place under the appropriate heading in the agenda.
- (b) If a candidate from one of the three faculties cannot be found to fill a Senate committee/subcommittee position, then nominations from the floor shall be accepted.
- (c) Nominating a Senator (or non-Senator, where applicable) who is not present at the time of the election shall be permitted, provided that it can be reliably reported that the nominee has agreed to accept the nomination.
- (d) Nominations shall be closed by a motion of Senate. If the number of nominees does not exceed the number of available positions, the nominees shall be declared elected by acclamation.
- (e) In each case where there are more nominees than available positions, a secret ballot shall be conducted to determine the outcome of the election.

7.7 Unprovided Cases

For all procedural situations not covered in these By-Laws, Senate's authority shall be Robert's Rules of Order. However, should procedural situations arise in which these By-Laws and the aforementioned reference are not in accordance, these By-Laws shall prevail.

8. ROLE AND FUNCTION OF SENATE COMMITTEES/SUBCOMMITTEES

8.0 The Role of Representative Standing and Ad Hoc Committees/Subcommittees

- (a) The effective conduct of Senate business relies heavily on the work of representative Senate committees or subcommittees established specifically to consider a broad range of matters related to the academic function of the University and to report on these to Senate, with recommendations as necessary and appropriate.

- (b) For academic matters of an ongoing nature, Senate shall establish a framework of standing committees and subcommittees, as outlined in 9.
- (c) At its discretion, Senate may also form ad hoc committees or subcommittees to deal with specific matters of a non-recurring nature. The proposed membership and terms of reference of any such ad hoc committee/subcommittee shall be specified in the motion to strike the committee/subcommittee.
- (d) Ad hoc committees and subcommittees of Senate shall serve until they are discharged by Senate.
- (e) The membership of all Senate standing or ad hoc committees/subcommittees should be gender inclusive, and should reasonably represent the diversity of academic or cultural traditions and viewpoints..

8.1 General Committee/Subcommittee Procedures
