

STUDENT DEVELOPMENT AND SERVICES

Quick Guide to APA

APA 6th Edition Reference Page (article from an online journal)

Only need the first initials of the author.
Always use a period after the authors initial!

Date featured prominently. Use current studies whenever possible!

Page range from the journal.

Harper, L., & Ross, J. (2011). An application of Knowles' theories of adult education to an undergraduate interdisciplinary studies degree program.

Journal of Continuing Higher Education, 59(3), 161-166. doi:

10.1080/07377363.2011.614887

Hanging indent to bring attention to the author's name.

Write the article title like a sentence. Only capitalize the first letter and proper nouns.

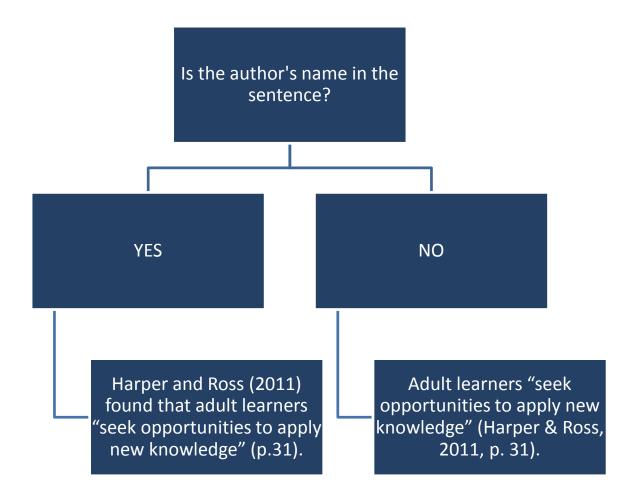

Italicize the title of the journal and the volume number but not the issue number!

Include a doi for online editions whenever possible.

In-Text Citation - Direct Quote

What you'll need:

- 1) Author's name(s)
- 2) Year of publication
- 3) Page or paragraph number

In-Text Citation – Paraphrase

What you'll need:

- 1) Author's name(s)
- 2) Year of publication

